Skills & Interests

I am a highly motivated human being looking for new challenges in IT & development areas, to continue creating solutions and growing professionally and personally.

That's why I directed my profile towards web development, having studied HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React.js and GitHub. (I also have knowledge of Node.js, Express.js, web SEO & Blockchain). Currently learning Next.js 🙌

I am very curious and persistent, and also... an Engineer, what is super useful in this environment to face the daily challenges and solve problems. I have a creative way to think above and beyond, also a great ability to learn quickly and flexibility to continuous change.

I enjoy a lot travelling & I would love to work remotely. Visit new places, knowing new people, and practice trekking are my passions, I really love nature life.

Enjoy the journey!

Work Experience

Sales Supervisor - (2021-2022)

I worked as a Sales Supervisor for the most important beverage company of Latin América: Cervecería y Maltería Quilmes (ABInBev). I was leading a team of 10 to accomplish sales objectives and solving daily issues with the clients.

Location: Neuquén, Argentina.

Team Leader - (2013-2016) - (2019-2020)

While I worked at the Montage Deer Valley Hotel & Resort (5 stars & 5 diamonds by Forbes), I started as a server assistant and after 2 month I became a server, and right away a Team Leader for Yama Sushi, Vista Lounge & Apex Patio Restaurants. Following the highest standards of service, to provide a wonderful experience to the guests and customers.

Location: Park City, Utah, United States.

Assembly and logistics Supervisor - (2015-2018)

IDEA annual congress is the most important businessmen congress in Argentina, where most powerful people of the country attend to debate about business and economy. They receive gifts from more than 50 different sponsors, and I was in charge of making it happen for 4 years, leading a team of 10, to assembly more than 1500 bags with gifts, and a subsequent delivery to every hotel room of each participant, where nothing can fail.

Location: Mar del Plata, Argentina.

Promotional campaign Supervisor - (2017-2018)

In 2017-2018 summer I supervise a team of 6 great persons in a Promotional Campaigning for the worldwide known company Danone in the main summer city of the country.

Location: Mar del Plata, Argentina.

Private classes on PC management for the elderly - (2008-2018)

For more than 10 years, since I was 17 years old until I have 27, while I was at school, and after in university, I gave private classes on PC management for elderly people, helping them to learn how to use social media, emails, videocalls, and different computer stuff, with a lot of patience and dedication.
